

EVENTS & ACTIVITIES, 5-7:30 P.M.

TRICK-OR-TREATING — Free

Bring your voucher to the Visitor Center to collect your trick-or-treat bag, and then board one of the spooky buses that will deliver you to the Historic Area. Just look for the glowing jack-o'-lanterns along the official 2016 Trick-or-Treating Route (see map) for participating houses!

A PIRATE'S LIFE FOR ME

Separate Ticket Required ($15)

Includes the following attractions:

PIRATE CARNIVAL

Venture over to the Pirate Carnival and try your luck with these dreaded games of chance. Before you depart, have your fortune told to see if you have dodged the curse of the undead. All activities are between R. Charlton's Coffeehouse and the Capitol Building.

HAUNTED TAVERN

Step inside this spooky tavern and experience all the sights and sounds of a haunted tavern run amuck. Located in Raleigh Tavern.

JOLLY ROGERS & POISONED APPLES

All young scalawags are invited to the ship resting in the "waters" to participate in ghoulishly fun activities including scary plays, Pass the Poisoned Apple, and a spooky Halloween costume contest. All activities are behind R. Charleton's Coffeehouse.

THE DEATH OF BLACKBEARD THE PIRATE

A unique storytelling experience featuring 18th-century style flat figure motion puppets and live music. Times: 6:00, 6:30, 7:00 and 7:30 p.m. Located at the corner of DoG Street and Blair Street, across from the Capitol Building.
